

94 93

To the Honorable Messrs. Weare Esqrs

Sir

Your Honor is doubtless Acquainted with my situation and that there is but one way left for me to Obtain my liberty untill the setting of the Superior Court in March next, which is to petition your Honor to Convene said Court and take their opinion on the subject and should they judge my case to be bailable doubt not your Honor williness to grant me the liberty, I therefore pray your Honor to Call the Court for the purpose aforesaid the Expence and Trouble of which I stand ready to pay

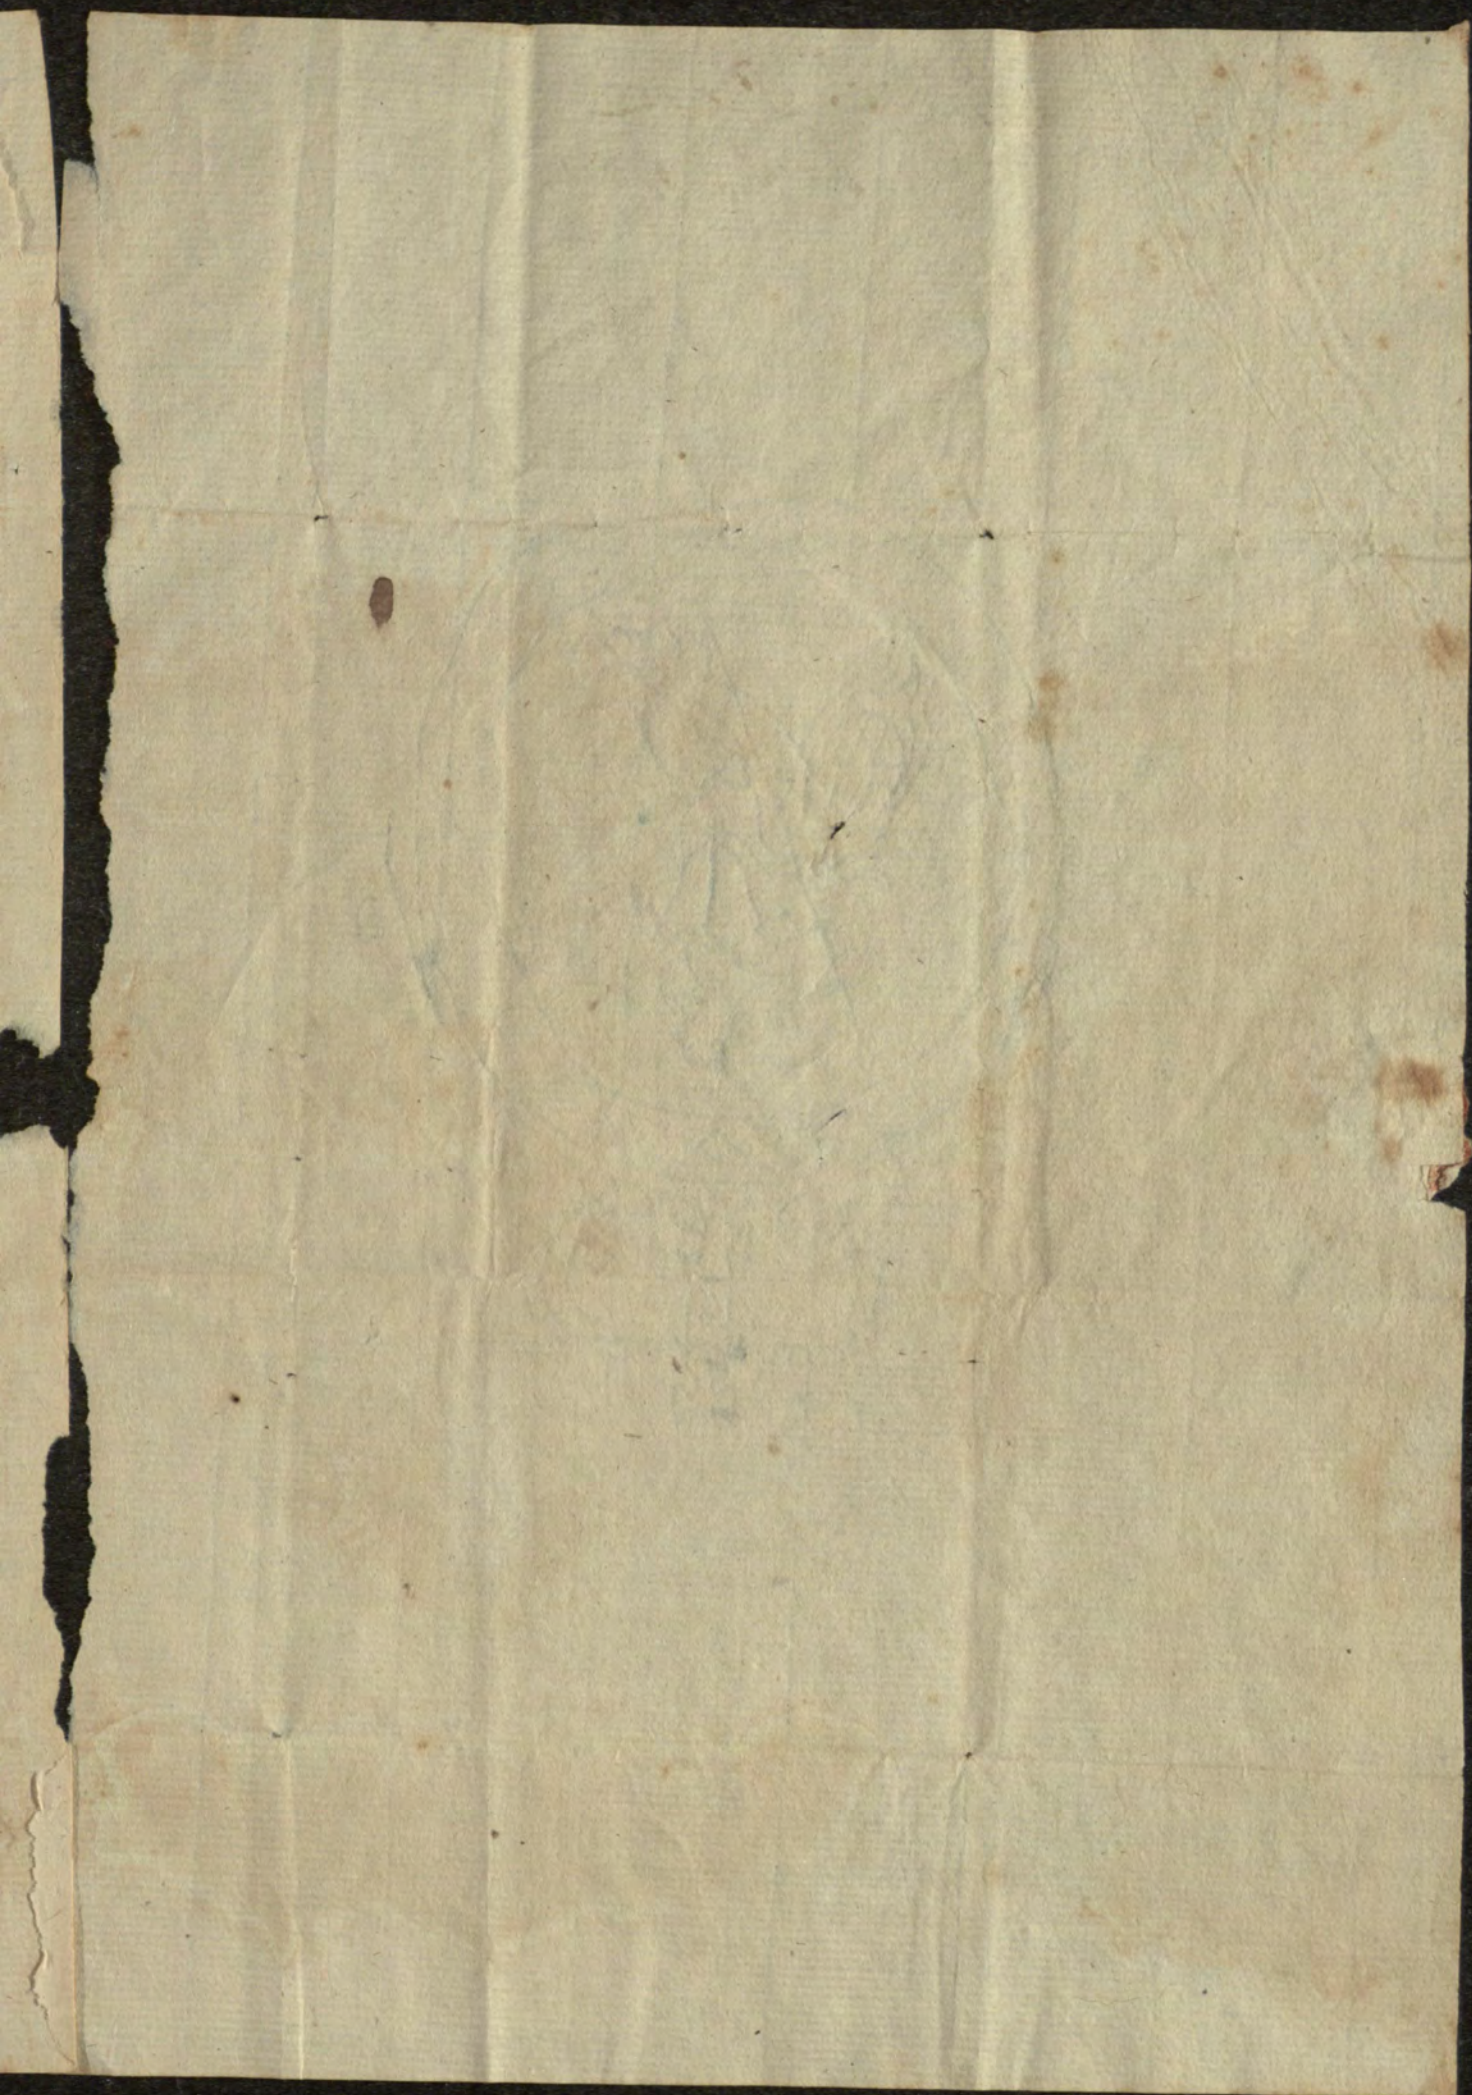

I am your Honor Most Obedt.

Most Wth

Exeter Goal Janth 17, 1782

Servant William Page

Doc. Page
Jan. 7. 1782

The Honorable

Thomas Mearns Esq.

Exeter

Wm. Folsom