

Names for the various parts of the body. Semang.

The following names are used by the Meneke or Negrito to express the various parts of their bodies. As it is probable that the body would have, from the earliest date of a settled language, names which are less likely to be subsequently altered than some others I send them for your discussion

This must not be confounded with the Malay ISEE. nor is it in any way connected (wittingly at least, thanks to say) ESEE-OO is the longer part of the internal tube of a sumpitan. & ESEE. the shorter part (when they are joined to make sufficient length) Leib - 100 -

ES-EE-OO

In some of the words used the Malay seems to have <sup>almost</sup> ~~rather~~ superseded the original Meneck, being more frequently used even among non Malay speaking Danggians but for all that there are Meneck words.
