Circular,
Sir,

From the Friends of Congress of the 23rd & 24th of 1791

I have the Honor to inclose you an Act of Congress of the 23rd Instant, and another connected therewith of the 24th, for the Purpose of procuring a Loan of thirty thousand Dollars for the distressed Citizens of South Carolina and Georgia, who have been driven from their Country & Possessions by the Enemy and are lately arrived in this City; and also for obtaining charitable Donations for the further Relief of said Sufferers.

Your Sensations on reading what is already written here, I know, anticipated every thing that I would wish on the Occasion, I shall therefore subscribe myself with the utmost Respect

Philadelphia
July 25th 1791.

Sir
Your most obedient
and most humble Servant

Tho M. Heath President

The Honorable
Messrs. Deane Esquire
